

Collective Bargaining and Teacher Compensation in the 21st Century

Tuesday, June 15, 2010 • 8:30 AM - 12:00 PM
ACES, Room 110/112, 205 Skiff Street, Hamden

This workshop will guide participants through effective teacher performance pay plans from around the nation and highlight new and innovative compensation plans that deviate from traditional pay plans. The Obama administration and tough economic times are pushing school districts to look with fresh eyes toward differentiated compensation for teachers. Presenters will examine how to work with your community, your teachers union and your employees to create a fair and sustainable system in your district.
