Help your new board members put the pieces together!

The first year as a new school board member can be difficult putting all the pieces of the job together. There's a critical range of information to learn in a short time. To ensure a good foundation, board members must have the right tools at their disposal when duty calls. The New Board Member Packet contains just the right gear a newly elected board member needs.

The packet includes:

- ✓ Becoming a Better Board Member
- ✓ Responsibilities of Board of Education Membership
- ✓ CABE Board Meeting Guide
- ✓ Governing Public Schools
- ✓ Education Law Summaries
- ✓ Successes in Connecticut Public Schools
- ✓ Simplified Chart of Parliamentary Procedures
- ✓ Media Tips Card

These books and guides answer questions you might have heard as a board member. For example:

- What is the difference between a policy and an administrative regulation?
- What authority does a board member have outside the board meeting?
- What is binding arbitration?
- When can you go into executive session?
- Where can I get information on parliamentary procedures?
- What are my responsibilities as a board of education member?

New board members, seasoned veterans, and even superintendents can benefit from these helpful guides. This packet is your key to making it to the top as a successful school board leader.

The packet of seven books (plus much more) costs only $80 for CABE member districts and $160 for non-member districts. Order now and have them ready after the election for your new board members.
