About Lebanon, CT

A historic, bucolic town first settled in the 1690s, Lebanon remains closely in touch with its colonial and agricultural roots. Several lakes and ponds, parks and trails (a section of the Airline Trail, Mooween State Park, and the Pigeon Swamp Preserve) and a mile-long Lebanon Green grace its 55.1 square miles.

The town is home to about 7,200 residents and 150 active farms, with agriculture the dominant economic activity. Despite its rural nature, Lebanon is close to Willimantic, Colchester, and Norwich and within a half-hour of Hartford and New London.

Our Schools:
- Lebanon Elementary School (335 students, gr. PK-4)
- Lebanon Middle School (296 students, gr. 5-8)
